

CHICAGO TABLOIDS

Minnie Smith, 6, Aurora, searched house with candle for Santa Claus. Found mother with benzine can. Both painfully burned.

By the way, has Freiberg's been closed yet?

Inspector Dorman, Capt. Plunkett and Lieuts. Ambrose and Howard will be tried for neglect of duty by civil service commission tomorrow. "Neglect of duty" is too polite.

Mrs. Esther Johnson, 6066 Aberdeen street, hanged herself with bedsheet yesterday. Had been planning trip to Sweden for her health.

Difference between Pasquale Schiavone, banker at S. Halsted and Taylor, and relatives, settled out of court. Schiavone gave them $5,000. And lawyers got most of that.

Joseph Koyolo, 1465 W. Chicago, struck and seriously injured by car while chasing boy who hit him with snowball. St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Mrs. Rosie Boglisch, 1930 Sheffield, found dead in bed by husband. Gas escaping. $300 kept in house missing.

Thirty-seven ticket choppers in loop removed by "L" road. The loop structure will get a taste of that removal medicine some day.

Peter Michouski, Chicago and Alton employe, used kerosene to start fire. He may recover.

Theodore Burgraff, 1478 W. Huron street, held up and robbed of $28 on W. Erie street yesterday.

John Dvorak, jr., 14 months, choked to death while eating candy at father's home. 1612 Fisk street.

Fire in plant of H. W. Caldwell, 17th street and Western ave., early today. One building destroyed. Loss $35,000.

Jewelry worth $3,000 taken from gem store of C. D. Peacock, 141 S. State street, early today. Horseshoe thrown through window.

Mrs. Edward Irwin, 1122 E. 56th street, beaten and choked at Woodlawn and Madison Park. Robbed of $25. Strange to say, a suspect was arrested.

Miss Alice Irwin, 543 E. 35th street, beaten by negro at 32d place and Rhodes ave. And again a suspect was arrested. Gave name of Walter Tinsley, recently discharged from jail.

Walter Tracey, farmer living at Willow Springs, robbed of $87 by two men at W. Polk and 5th ave.

John Cullinan and John Maloney attempted to rob William Barton, chauffeur, after riding in his taxi. Barton shot and killed Cullinan, and Maloney was captured by police.

Lucille Stitt, 3, kidnaped. Daughter of Mrs. Florence Stitt, Englewood, found at home of father's relatives, Mason, Ohio. Father arrested as abductor.

Two men held up restaurant at 1144 S. 40th ave. yesterday, and secured $10 from waiter.

Policeman James Harrison kicked and beaten by four men he tried to arrest for knocking
